

Curriculum Vitae

	Name in Full	JinYong Kim
	Country	Korea
	Affiliation	KwangDong Hospital
	Email	drjinyong@gmail.com

Educational Background

Dr. Kim has gained MD and PhD at Korea University, College of Medicine and he completed MPH for Environmental Sciences at Johns Hopkins School of Public Health.

Professional Carrer

Dr. JinYong Kim was the chief of medical humanities department at Cha University, Graduate School of Medicine. He also practiced gastroenterology and geriatrics at the Ilsan Cha hospital as a faculty of Cha University. Prior, he has worked as the president of Chaum hospital. Before that, he pursued a pharmaceutical industry career for 7 years as a medical director for Johnson and Johnson(Janssen), Asia Pacific and also for Novartis, Korea as the Chief Scientific Officer, responsible for conducting clinical trials and collaborating with healthcare professionals. He had spent three years in Mongolia as a physician sent by KOICA(Korea International Cooperation Agency) in 1998 where his passion for global public health started to grow. Dr.Kim had also worked as a short-term consultant for Korean government and medical NGOs to support strengthening primary health care systems in Nepal, Mongolia, Pakistan, Palestine, Sri Lanka, Papua New Guinea, Cambodia and Tanzania.

Research Field

He is interested in international health and geriatric gastroenterology including sarcopenia as well as endoscopy in very old age.